

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Stories, photos, articles. Which do you prefer?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can say what I'm doing in the future.
- I can introduce an opinion.

Ask your partner:

- Do you think you might like to work for a magazine? Why or why not?
- Would you ever like to be a boss or manager of a company? Why or why not?

Let's Explore!

Sally and Vanessa talk about their future plans.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Hey! Remember that freelance position I was telling you about? The one I applied to?
- Vanessa: Yeah.
- Sally: They called me in for an interview this morning.
- Vanessa: Sweet! How'd it go?
- Sally: Ah, I was nervous. I really think I let my nerves get the best of me.
- Vanessa: No way! I have no doubt that you did well. I definitely think they're going to hire you.
- Sally: I hope so. This would be a great start to my career as a journalist.
- Vanessa: I'm pretty sure you'll get the job, but if you don't, you might want to consider becoming a food critic.
- Sally: Of course, and then I can write about your restaurant and its wonderful dishes.
- Vanessa: Cute, but the way I see it, I won't open up my own restaurant anytime soon. I may move back to Cambridge.
- Sally: When will you come back?
- Vanessa: I might come back in a few months.
- Sally: That'd be great!
- Vanessa: But only if you'll promise to help me write my cookbook.

Let's Practice!

What's on Sally's career path?

Instructions: Select all the words that are about work or jobs.

Sally: Hey! Remember that freelance position I was telling you about? The one I applied to?

Vanessa: Yeah.

Sally: They called me for an interview this morning. I was so nervous.

Vanessa: Don't worry. I definitely think they will hire you. If they don't, you could be a food critic.

Sally: I hope so. This would be a great start to my career as a journalist.

Let's Practice!

What's Vanessa's opinion? Does Sally agree?

Instructions: Read the text. Check off the correct box in the table. There is more than one answer per question.

	I think ...	I have no doubt that ...	I'm pretty sure ...	The way I see it ...
The way I see it I won't open up my own restaurant any time soon.
I really think I let my nerves get the best of me.
I'm pretty sure you'll get the job.
I definitely think they are going to hire you.

Extension Activity

What do you think about it? Which one will you choose? Let's share opinions.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go on the Internet.
- Find 4 crazy jobs. Write them down in the table below.
- Read about them.
- What's your opinion about each of them? Write 2-3 sentences for each job. Remember to use an expression to introduce your opinion.
- Share your opinions with a partner.

Job	My Opinion

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I research different jobs on the Internet.

☐ ☐

I write down my opinion about different jobs.

☐ ☐

I introduce my opinion using an expression.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- magazine (noun): a large thin book that contains news stories, articles and photographs
e.g. I'll work for a magazine.
- freelance (adjective): work independently for a company
e.g. I applied for a freelance position.
- journalist (noun): someone who writes for newspapers or magazines
e.g. This job is the first step in becoming a journalist.
- to hire (verb): to employ someone to do a specific job
e.g. They are going to hire you as their new writer.
- start (noun): the beginning of someone's job, which they will develop in the future
e.g. This will be a great start to my career.
- food critic (noun): someone whose job is to make judgments about the dishes served in restaurants e.g. You love to eat food, you should become a food critic.
- to open up (verb): to make available to the public
e.g. I might open up a restaurant in the city.

Learning Points

Will, May, Might

You use the Future tense (will) to talk about actions in the future. You can also use the modals might and may to talk about possible actions in the future.

The auxiliary will goes before the verb. The short form is 'll.

You use the Future tense when you talk about the future, make offers or make predictions.

The modals might and may go before the verb.

They talk about future possibility or a chance that something will happen.

Might means there is a smaller chance that something will happen (30%).

May means there is a slightly greater chance that something will happen (50%).

Examples:

- I might write a cookbook.
- I will move back to Boston next year.
- They may open a restaurant.

Expressing Opinions

You use these expressions to express an opinion:

I think...

In my opinion ...

I'm pretty sure ...

The way I see it ...

I have no doubt that ...

Examples:

- I really think I did well.
- I have no doubt that you got the job.
- The way I see it they'll definitely hire you.

