

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

It's time to accept a job offer with Sally. What's the job?

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Where would you like to work when you are older?
- What would your dream job be?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk about cause and effect.
- I can introduce an opinion.

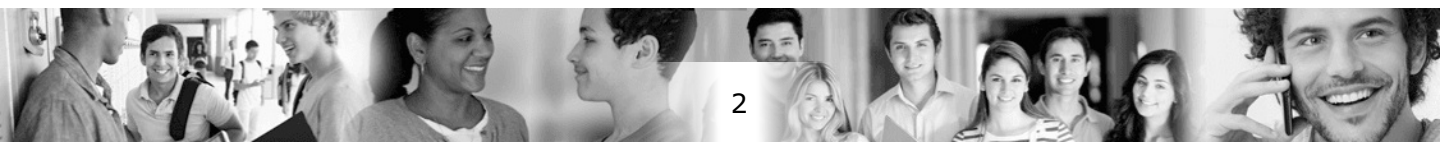

Let's Explore!

Sally gets a call from the magazine. Who's it from?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Mr. Gold: Hello, Sally? This is Mr. Gold. I'm calling from Cambridge Life about your interview.
- Sally: Ah, Mr. Gold. How are you?
- Mr. Gold: I'm well, thanks. We believe that you will be a great fit to our publication. If this position is still of interest to you, you will join our team as a freelancer.
- Sally: Of course! I would love to.
- Mr. Gold: Fantastic. You will need to send an e-mail to HR so that they can get you all set up and attend a meet and greet. I'll transfer you over to the receptionist.
- Sally: OK. Thank you.
- Mr. Gold: Please hold for a moment.
- Receptionist: Hi, Ms. Davis?
- Sally: Yes.
- Receptionist: You're able to come in at anytime, correct?
- Sally: That's correct.
- Receptionist: Hmm. OK. You'll need to get a pass when you come. You'll need to do that before your meet and greet. In my opinion, the morning would be easier. It's not as busy.
- Sally: Alright.
- Receptionist: I'm booking you in for 9:30 a.m. on Monday. Come in 45 minutes early.

Let's Practice!

Sally is talking to Mr. Gold. What does he tell her?

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

Sally, our (interview / publication / book) believes you'll be a great (team / position / fit) for our team. We would like you (to join / to transfer / to hold) our team as a (freelance / freelanced / freelancer). Please call the (editors / receptionist / freelance) to book your (interview / meet and greet / card).

Let's Practice!

What does Sally have to do before she goes in for her meet and greet?

Instructions: Read each clue. Check off the correct square.

- _____ I transfer you, I will need to know your availability.
- _____ you're interested, you'll join our team as a freelancer.
- _____ our call, I'll transfer you over.
- You'll need to get a pass _____ you come.
- You will need to do this _____ your meet and greet.

Before	when	after
If	☒	After
before	if	When

Extension Activity

Let's make a phone call.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a dialogue (10-12 lines) between a manager and a new employee.
- Pretend you are the manager. You are going to call the new employee and offer them a job.
- Share your opinion with them. Use the first conditional.
- Read your dialogue aloud with a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write about jobs and work.

☐ ☐

I share an opinion.

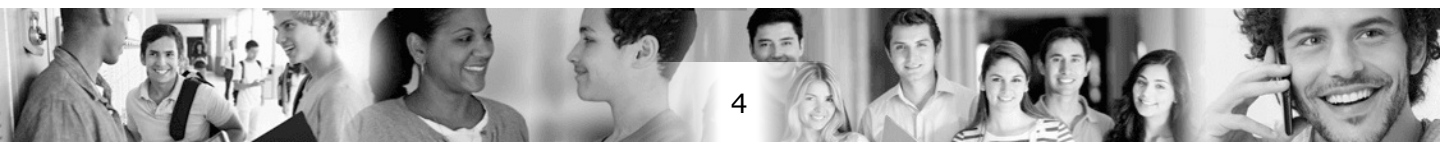

☐ ☐

I talk about possible actions in the future.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- fit (noun): the way in which a person matches with something else
e.g. We believe that you will be a great fit to our magazine.
- publication (noun): a magazine, paper, etc., that is printed and made available to the public e.g. You will be a part of our publication's staff.
- freelancer (noun): a person who works independently for a company e.g. I was hired as a freelancer.
- to join (verb): to become a member
e.g. I would love to join your team.
- to transfer (verb): to connect someone who has called you to someone else's phone e.g. He transferred me over to the front desk.
- receptionist (noun): a person who talks to people arriving at an office and answers the phone e.g. The receptionist booked me in for a session.
- meet and greet (noun): an event where a new employee goes and meets other people who work in the office
e.g. I called the receptionist to book in my meet and greet with the company.

Learning Points

The First Conditional

You can use the first conditional to talk about possible actions and situations in the future.

There are two parts to the sentence.

One part is the condition. The other part is the result.

Form:

If + subject + Simple Present tense + subject + will/won't*

You use a comma after the condition in this form.

*You can use other words instead of if. You can use before, after or when. These are words we use with future time clauses.

You can flip the two parts of the sentence so that the result comes first.

Condition	Result
Before you come to the front desk,	you'll have to call.
After your interview,	you will want to get your ID card!
Result	Condition
You'll need to get your access card	when you come!
You may send them an e-mail	if you have any questions.

Expressing Opinions

You use these expressions to express an opinion:

I think ...

In my opinion ...

I believe that ...

As far as I'm concerned ...

Examples:

- I think coming in the morning is easy.
- In my opinion, the afternoons are busy.
- As far as we're concerned, you are a great fit for our team.

