Let's Start!

It's time to catch up over dinner!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to go to restaurants with your friends? Why or why not?
- What is your favorite meal to order in a restaurant? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food and drink.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can introduce an opinion.

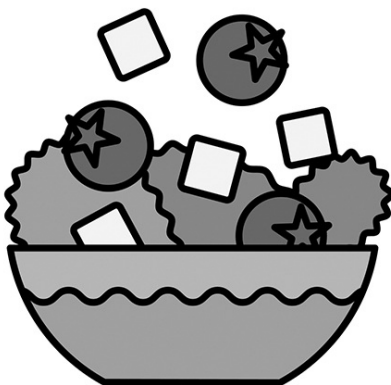

Let's Explore!

Sally and Peter go out for dinner. What do they order? A salad?

* A "salad" can be a mixture of raw vegetables or raw or cooked food cut into small pieces and served cold.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hey Peter. Would you mind if we sit inside instead?
Peter: Of course not.
Sally: Thanks.
Peter: Personally, I think it was nicer outside.
Sally: Sure but I would like to point out that it isn't windy in here.
Peter: Mhm. Anyways, how's the job? You went to that meet and greet today right?
Sally: I'd say that it was a successful day.
Peter: Good to hear.
Waiter: Sorry to interrupt, I'm Craig. I'll be your waiter today. Could I start you off with anything to drink?
Sally: I would like some lemonade please.
Peter: Water is fine for me, thanks.
Waiter: Could I get you some appetizers as well?
Peter: Yes. Can I get the French onion soup please?
Waiter: Certainly. And for you?
Sally: I want something light. I was wondering if you could give me some suggestions.
Waiter: Sure, you can try our new quinoa salad or a lettuce wrap.
Sally: A lettuce wrap? I think that sounds interesting. I'll have that. Thanks.

Let's Practice!

Would you like to practice making a request?

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. Would you mind if we sit inside instead?
2. I would like some lemonade, please.
3. Could I get you some appetizers?
4. Can I get the French onion soup, please?
5. I was wondering if you could give me some suggestions.
6. Certainly.
7. Of course.

Let's Practice!

Sally and Peter have a few opinions of their own. What are they?

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Write each word in the correct order.

1. inside / mind / ? / you / if / instead / Would / we / sit

2. nicer / I / it / Personally / . / outside / was / think

3. windy / to / point / here / like / isn't / I / . / out / in / that / would / it

4. day / it / successful / . / was / say / a / that / I'd

5. sounds / . / interesting / that / I / think

Extension Activity

Let's go to a restaurant!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Visit a local restaurant in your neighborhood.
- Listen to the people around you talk. How did they make requests? How do the waiters respond to their requests?
- Pretend you are a waiter at this restaurant.
- Write a dialogue about you and a customer in English.
- Give them your opinion about what they should try.
- Read your dialogue aloud with a partner.

Learning Points

Expressing Opinions

You use these expressions to introduce your opinion:

(Personally,) I think ...

In my opinion ...

I would like to point out ...

The way I see it ...

I'd say that ...

Examples:

- I think we should go for seafood tonight.
- The way I see it, this is a celebratory dinner!
- In my opinion, sushi is much better!

Making and Responding to Requests

When you make and respond to requests, remember to be polite.

Look at the chart below. Practice the requests and responses below.

Making a Request	Responding to a Request
Would you mind ... ? Would you like ... ? Could I get ... ? Can I get ... ? I would like ... I was wondering if ...	Sure. No problem. Certainly. Of course.

Examples:

• Mia: I was wondering if I could get some salt, please.

Mia: Thank you. Could I get some sugar as well?

Waiter: No problem.
